DAY Terry McGovern will begin ning for his fight with my Murphy, of Harlem, is to take place in Philadelphia has been getting slowly by playing baseball. He has shy a few notches of being "Terrible Terry," he looks fit old "Terrible Terry." he looks fit to the page of Mr. Murphy. Terry happens to be in as good as he was ten mants ago. he knocked out Edde Hanion in Philadelphia, Murphy's chambile aspirations will be brought with a jerk. But the Harlemite's ds are counting upon finding well established in the has-been. His recent breakdown may have all of the real fighting stamma of him, and in that case Tommy add a much more important lines record than he did last week, he put away poor old decrepit to Dixon.

RANK ERNE is training Murphy for the fight. He says that Mur-phy is really as good as Johnny r thinks him to be. Erne ex-

Little Men Will Clash for Six Rounds Before the Washington Sporting Club, in the Quaker City.

"Chick". Tucker, of the Avonia A. C., night, where he will meet "Phil" Logan, the clever Quaker City boxer, in a six-round bout before the Washington Sporting Club.

This will be Tucker's fourteenth battle in Philadelphia, and as he was only outpointed in two of the contests Logan will have to fight as never before in order to beat him. Tucker is fighting in great form at present. He clearly heat Matty Baldwin in the tenth round of their bout at Lawrence, Mass., on Friday fight, but as Baldwin claimed as had been hit low by Tucker Referee Martin Flaherty awarded Baldwin the decision on a foul.

If Tucker defeats Logan he will issue a challenge to fight Tommy Murphy a return battle in Phialdelphia.
